A Word to Ohio.

Our friends in Ohio, in addition to the defection caused by the Legislative Resignation and the large Abolition division, have been mowed down by an overwhelming German vote, cast by newly Naturalized Citizens, who have gone en masse for Loco-Focoism. This is to be regretted, but it will be only a transient evil if our friends bear it kindly and manfully. There is no use and no reason in cursing and quarreling with those who have thus turned the scale against us. They are very imperfectly informed with regard to our politics-many of them cannot read English-and the great mass of them doubtless voted as they believed best for the country. Let proper means be taken to enlighten them and they will be found on the right side hereafter. This is more certain from the fact that on the great question which is destined to be foremost in our succeeding controversies-that of PROTES TION-the Germans are emphatically sound at home. The whole ground has been fought over in Germany, and the result of twenty years' controversy is a unanimous agreement in favor of the policy of Protection against British Manufacturing skill and capital. This precise question is destined to be paramount here, and the Germanwill naturally be found, when the arts of their misleaders shall have been counteracted, on that side among us which is sustained by the universal sentiment of their countrymen as hen

It will be easy to have a fair fight upon it in Ohio, for the Loco-Focos there evince on this estion none of the skulking and shuffling voting which is pursued by their brethren generally through the interior of this State. They are straight out and open-mouthed for Free Tradethat is, Trade with all other Nations on just such terms as those Nations may choose to dictate. Their Governor, Shannon, is understood to be a Calhoun man, and not one of their Representatives in Congress votes for any kind of a Tariff. Or this point, there is no ducking nor dodging about

Let the Whigs of Ohio, then, but address them selves patiently and kindly, personally and zealously, to the task of enlightening the New Voters on this great subject of Protection in all its bear ings on their own and the Public Interests, and a great part of them will inevitably be found with us in 1844. Let them indulge in no unworthy passion in this hour of their sore disappointment, and all will yet be well.

The Whig Nominating Committee of the Third Congressional District, composed of the First, Second. Third, Fourth and Fifth Wards of this City, met last evening and unanimously nom inated J. PHILLIPS PHŒNIX of the Firs Ward for Congress. This selection is especially appropriate, although there were several other gentlemen of distinguished talents and fitness presented as candidates. The District, however, is thoroughly mercantile in its character-composed mainly of persons connected more or less closely with commercial interests. Mr. PHENIX is one of our oldest, most upright and popular merchants -of high ability and of unswerving integrity. He will command, as he nobly deserves, the united, cordial support of all the Whigs of the District.

The Loco-Focos held what they styled a "Working Men's Meeting" at Tammany or Tuesday evening, at which that industrious workey Elijah F. Purdy, was President, and our illustrious friend Mike Walsh chief orator. Mike made a pretty good speech, showing up the hypocrisy and knavery of the leaders of the self-styled Democracy. An Address and Resolutions were adopted. calling the new Protective Tariff all the hard names that could be thought of, and exhorting the People to rally for the reelection of Silas Wright who gave the deciding vote for that very Tariff, and whose country friends claim for him the merit of passing it. A desperate attempt was made to rally all the Working Men against Protection because (they allege) the capitalists are in favor of it-which would be just as good a reason for desiring a frost in every summer month, or a general blight of the Harvest-Capital being averse to such a calamity, Labor should pray for its occurrence, if the Logic of this meeting be sound. It is melancholy to see that some men can put forth for argument and reason such assertions as are embodied in the proceedings of that meeting.

Gen. James R. Lawrence, a most able and efficient Whig Member of the Legislatures of 1838, '9, '40, is now, though not a candidate for any office, addressing his fellow citizens of Onondaga County from village to village by appointment. This is a noble example-from a right quarter. Will not MILLARD FILLMORE, MARK H. SIBLEY, SAMUEL STEVENS and other eminent Whigs imitate it?

PENNSYLVANIA.—The Senate of this State consists of 33 members, 11 of whom were elected this year. The Whigs carried 3; the Loco-Focos 8. Of the Senators holding over, 11 are Whigs, 10 Loco-Focos, 1 (Smith of Bucks) a sort of Conservative. The Senate will therefore stand-Lo-cos 18, Whige 14, Conservative 1. The House of Representatives consists of 100 members, of whom the Whigs have elected 40, as

Independent members are elected from Armstrong......1|Schuylkill.....1 Somerset and Cambria 2

Total..... The remaining 56 members elected are Luco-Focos, giving them a net majority of 12 in the House and 17 on joint ballot.

The Whigs threw away 3 Senate Districts and 15 members in Adams, Allegheny, Bucks, Dauphin, Chester, Butler, Mercer, Franklin, Somerset, Union, Mifflin and Juniata counties, where they have majorities, and thus lost the opportunity of securing both Houses of the Legislature and a U. S. Senator.

The best joke we have heard connected with this election is the following:

In the county of Luzerne, which is strongly Loco-Foco, the regular ticket had on it for the Legislature a Dutchman named Koons. The Locos swore they would not go it-they were against coons, tooth and toe-nail. So Mr. Koons was backed off and a Loco named Brodhead put in his place. This incensed some of Koons's friends, who instigated Chester Butler, a Whig, to come out as a stump candidate, and helped elect him, though the Whigs had not deemed it worth while to make any nomination.

TENNESSEE .- Mr. Douglass. Speaker of the House of Representatives, having resigned his seat in consequence of ill health, Mr. Buchanan (Whig) has been elected Speaker by a majority of three votes over Mr. Polk, (Loco.)

Gen. WILLIAM H. ADAMS, of Wayne Co. is the Whig candidate for Congress from Wayne and Seneca. An abler man or truer Whig there is not in Central New-York, and we trust he will be elected, especially as he has for an opponent. Byram Green, one of the "seventeen" Senators who in 1824 refused to the People of New York the right of choosing their Electors of President.

IXth District .- The Whigs of ORANGE and SULLIVAN held their Convention at Goshen on Tuesday, and nominated JAMES WHEELER of Warwick, Orange County, for Congress. He is a ubstantial Farmer and business man, of approved ntegrity and worth, and will poll a strong vote. JAMES G. CLINTON of Newburgh, who at the last Session voted against Protection in every form and the Tariff in every shape, even after it had been cut down to Capt. Tyler's dictation, is the Loco-Foco candidate in that District. It took welve hours' hard wrangling to make him such; and we should think it a much harder job to coax the Farmers and Mechanics of Orange and Sulli-

The Whigs of ORANGE County held a large and strong County Convention at Goshen on Tuesav and nominated with entire unanimity HUD-SON M'FARLAN of Monroe, GEORGE HOUS-TON of Walkill, and JOSHUA MULLOCK, Jr. of Mount Hope, for Members of Assembly. They ere all good men and true, ardent friends of the New-York and Erie Rrilroad, and will urge its prosecution by every means in their power. Mr. M'FARLAN has twice represented the County with emisent ability and honor, and we trust he will be called to represent it a third time. He will if hose who say they desire the prosecution of the Eric Railroad will act as they talk.

Home Industry Convention.

The following Resolutions were passed by the Home Industry Convention at its last evening session, in addition to those passed the preceding day, which we have already published:

which we have already published:

Resolved, That a great change in public opinion having been brought about by the statistical facts and arguments published by the Home League Association, we now urge on the Central Committee the continuance of such publications. We wish Farmers especially, to see the value of our home market for those agricultural products they cannot send abroad without paying from 100 to 1000 per cent. more duties than are levied on imports taken in exchange for them, and we want our citizens generally to understand the fact, that Protection is not for the benefit of monopolists at fact, that Protection is not for the benefit of monopolists at tact, that Protection is not for the benefit of monopoists at bome, but to defend us against those abroac—for, with our home-market secure against excessive imports of such goods as we can and night to manufacture, every such article, amply protected, will become cheaper by the effect of home competition, and thus put an end to smuggling, as well as foreign rivalship.

Resolved, That a union of education and labor is as advantageous to a young nation desirous to introduce the useful arts, as schooling and learning a trade are among the enterprising young men of an industrious community. The expense of introducing skill and costly experiments to obtain perfection in any mechanical and manutacturing pur-suits shoule be indemnified by those who are benefied by it, and if our country is enriched by successful appropria-tions of individual capitalists for these objects, it is for its interest to protect them, or at least to pay the cost of learning the trades which enterprize and ingenuity have intro

Resolved, therefore, That protection is right in principle as well as practice. Every nation that adopts this policy advances in civilization and independence; all who neglect and akandon it, either remain poor and ignorant, or retrograde into barbarty.

Resolved, That we recommend to all our fellew citizens the well to see our own laboring men well educated, well who wish to see our own laboring men well educated, well clothed, and well fed, to give preference to fabrics made at home by our own freemen, rather than to use imported luxuries for the maintenance of unfortunate foreign serfs. Resolved, That the interests of Agriculture and Manu-Resolved. That the interests of Agriculture and Manufactures are one and indivisible, as demonstrated alike by the experience of our own and the history of other counries; that the importance of the home market created by Manufacturing, is strikingly exemplified by the fact that the prices of Land, of Bread-stuffs and Provisions were doubled during the operation of the Tariff Policy, and although the exportation of the two latter has been diminished by foreign restrictions, the home consumption has vastly increased. Resolved, That while the immense contractions of our currency within the last few years, inevitably causing a re-Resolved, That while the immense contractions of our currency within the last few years, inevitably causing a reduction of the prices of all products, has necessarily reduced the money prices of Labor, we rejoice to believe and know that, so son as the new Tariff shall have had time to exert its fair and full effect in giving activity to businessand steady employment to industry, the general condition of the laboring classes will be sensibly and permanently improved, and the actual reward of labor increased, whatever its means price shall be and the actual reward of labor increased, whatever its money price shall be.

Resolvind, That it is hereby recommended to the friends of the Protection of Home Labor throughout the Union, to press the importance of this subject upon the attention of the laboring men of the country in every practicable manner, and to require of the candidates for Congress, especially of the respective political parties, expressa nd unequivocal avowals of their soundness on this question, and their determination to consider it secondary to no other interest, out to uphold faithfully the principle and policy of Protection.

FATAL ACCIDENT .- On Tuesday night Charles Pool and John May, painters by trade, boarding at No. 542 Pearl-street, went out, and about 11 o'clock, returned home intoxicated, and returned to their chambers in the third story of the house. Soon after May was seen to fall out of the third story window upon the side-walk, thereby fracturing his skull, and otherwise so seriously injuring himself that he was left insensible, and conveying him to the hospital he died. The Coroner will hold the inquest to-day.

F A man was shockingly bruised yesterday afternoon by an explosion of rock blasting on 23d street, between 7th and 8th Avenues. Some months since a young man was killed by a similar neglect on the part of the blasters. The lives of our citizens have been in constant danger for a MELANCHOLY DISASTER AT MT. DESERT .- A correspondent at Mt. Desert writes us that a melancholy disaster happened in that vicinity on Monday, the 3d instant. As two boys were crossing from Mt. Desert to Cranbury Isle, in an open beat, with two sails set, a sudden squall struck them just before reaching the shore of the other place, and the beat capsized and filled, and before assistance reached them, one of the boys, Cornelius E. Franklin, of Attleborough, Mass, 16 years of age, sunk to rise no more. He was one of the crew of the schooner Woodcock, Clements, master, arrived the day before from the straits of Belle Isle. The other boy, J. H. Hutchings, of Kennebunk, aged 13 years, was picked up by a boat that went to his assistance, while clinging to the mast of the boat, nearly exhausted. He had been in the [Pertlend Adv. water over half an hour.

A MELANCHOLY SUICIDE occurred in this City Saturday evening. Mr. Heary Moses a journey man mechanic many years in the employment of Mr. Babcock, carriage manufacturer, hung himself about 6 o'clock. He was an aged man, unmarried, and has no relation in this quarter. All his acquaintances speak of him as a man of irreproachable character, and the cause of this act is com-[Portland Adv. pletely a mystery.

SEIZURE OF CANNON FROM THE PATRIOTS .-Yesterday, Capt. Erastus Smith, Deputy United States Marshal for this district, seized three iron annon and two carriages, which were in the possession of the Patriots. They were found in an old building in Ohio City, buried some two feet under ground, and were put on board the Revenue Cutter, Capt. Knapp. The carriages were found n this city-were in good and complete order for service, and painted a lead color. [Cleveland Herald.

FATAL ACCIDENT .- We learn from Col. Hatch, hat Mr. Parker Douglas, of Middleborough, left his home on Wednesday last, on a hunting excursion. Not returning it created some alarm, and diligent search was made till Saturday, when his body was discovered in the woods in Taunton, near Myrick's, shot through the head. He had a double-barreled gun, and it is supposed while loading one, the other was discharged, which proved fatal. His dog was found in a famished condition, lying by his body. [N. Bedford Mer.

ACCIDENT .- Rosanna, daughter of Thos. Milliligan, aged 7 years, was instantly killed near Kinderhook, on Sunday last, the 2d inst., by being [Hudson Gazette. run over by an ox cart.

SUICIDE.-Captain Fuller, of Sheridan, Chautauque Co., late from the Eastern part of the State, cut his throat with a knife on the 4th inst. and died in a few hours. Cause-Disappointment in not receiving a sum of money due him.

SUICIDE.-We learn that a respectable looking young weman jumped overboard from the Jackson Ferry boat yesterday, while on her way to this city, and was drowned. [Brooklyn Eagle.

We regret to learn that a serious break has occurred in the Rideau Canal which will require twelve or fourteen days to repair. It could not have happened at a less opportune season, and will cause much inconvenience to the mercantile and forwarding interests of the Province. [Montreal Courier.

CONCERT .- A Concert of rare and varied attractions combining a selection from the best of the melodies of Scotland and Ireland, and some of the finest compositions of the Italian School, will take place this evening at the Apollo Rooms. The names of Signor De Begnis Mr. C. E. Horn, and Mrs. Horn and Mr. Timm appear in the programme. It also introduces to the New-York Musical fine pathetic ballad, appeals to our patronage with a very high scientific claim. She is a stranger, and, therefore, we hope will be liberally supported. WILSON'S NEW LOCK .- We some weeks since called the attention of the public to a very novel and ingeniously constructed Lock invented by Mr. Wm. Wilson, of Northampton, Mass. It has been exhibited at the Fair of the American Institute during the past and present week, and has received such unlimited approbation that we feel a pleasure in again calling public attention to its merits. This lock is designed as a safety lock, for banks, safes, stores, &c., and for it that they will not be disappointed. from its cheapness, safety, simplicity and durability cannot but recommend itself to all those who are desirous of securing themselves against burglarious invasion. We understand that Mr. Wilson will remain in the city three or

BY THIS MORNING'S MAIL.

Latest from Ohio. Correspondence of the Tribune.

BALTIMORE, Wednesday, Oct. 19, 8 P. M. The Western mail brings papers from Columbus to the evening of Saturday last. The Journal of that date gives unofficial and reported returns from all the counties in the State but Athens, Darke, Gallia, Hardin, Henry, Lawrence, Meigs. Attowa, Paulding, Putnam, Vanwert, Williams and Wood. Without these counties Shannon has a plurality of 3,225 votes over Corwin, which may be reduced to 2,500 by the counties yet to be heard from. I am surprised to find the vote so short in many of the counties-especially in the northern portion of the State. Had the full vote been polled in the Western Reserve, this majerity of Shannon would have been reversed, or had no abelition candidate been run Corwin would still have been elected.

As it is, Shannon is chosen but by a minority of all the votes polled, King, the Abolition candidate, having received from four to five thousand votes throughout the State. The Loco-Focos will have decided majorities in the two Houses of the Legislature, but the members who go to make up that majority were elected by less than 100 votes down to 10. Had 150 more Whigs voted-and they were there-in the Clermont and Ross Districts, and in Guernsey, Harrison, and one or two counties on the Reserve, we should have carried the Legislature.

But it is of no avail now that we point out what could have been done. We have as effectually lost the State, having the power to save it, as if we had not the power.

All the evils, then, that will follow an undisputed Loce-Foco sway may be expected, are justly chargeable to ourselves. The Whigs have not only given up the State to the Loco-Focos to be gerrymandered in the Congressional districts. but they have disappointed the just expectations of their friends throughout the Union, and been of more service to the Loco-Focos, in several approaching contests, than all the efforts of Tyler and his squad, and all their party could hope to

But will not New-York disappoint them? We emember-who can forget !- the glorious times November, 1239, when Ohio faltered as now, when all gave back, when Maryland and even Massachusetts were gone, we remember that then New-York breasted the storm and rode it out in safety. Cannot she do so now? She can if her sons will it-if the Whigs go to the polls as then, and if the great West comes in with her thousands upon thousands of voters. All for the present depends on New-York, and it is right that you should know it. Now more than ever is the fate of the country to be decided by her mighty voice. Let it speak as in 1833 and '39, and all is well.

FOUND DROWNED .- The body of Mrs. N. H. Bridge, (wife of Wm. Bridge,) was found on Friday evening last, as we learn from the Boston Daily Mail, in a small boat, under a narrow bridge, at a place called Canterbury, in Roxbury. Mrs. N. has been deranged, at times, for the last ear, and feeble in health. She left her home in South-street on the evening of the 7th inst. telling her oldest daughter to take good care of the childrep, as she would be gone but a few minutes. It s probable she wandered about in a deranged and feverish state, and fell into the water exhausted and helpless.

CARRYING A JOKE TOO FAR .- A late number of the Tennessee Review, states that a bill of indictment had been found against Geo. Smith, John H. Tobb, Loften Duke, James Pearce, and Leroy Brown, for the murder of a slave belonging to a Mr. Miller. They had all got into a drunken spree, and under the influence of liquor, enticed the negro into a loft, and hung him for fun, intending to cut him down in a moment or two before life should be extinct. Their drunken frolic was carried too far-the negro died.

COLORED PERSONS IN OHIO .- An important udicial decision has lately been made in Ohio, in relation to colored people, by Judges Lane and Birchard, one of whom is a Whig, and the other is a Democrat. The decision asserts the principle that the Legislature of Ohio "have no power to make distinction among citizens of other States who may settle in this." And the principle is asserted in reference to the case of a colored citizen of Louisiana, who had emigrated to and settled in the State. By this decision, all the laws of the State making distinctions on account of color. whether in relation to giving security, or educational privileges, or to testimony, are rendered null and void, so far as they affect any colored citizen of other States, who may have emigrated to Ohio.

CITY TAXES.—A long debate took place on a resolution of the Mayor to raise $118,000 for Common Schools, instead of $59,000, the former being one-twentieth of one per cent. as required by law, and the latter recommended by the Comttee. It was suggested that members were compelled to act according to law under a penalty, [$250,] and farther, that the demand for schoolhouses would require a large sum. The amount is for 1842, to reimburse money borrowed, and it was stated by the Mayor that more than $59, 000 had been already paid by the Chamberlain in this item. The debate was earnestly conducted by the Mayor, Ald. Woodnull, Underwood, Purdy, Leonard, Lee, Crolius, Jones, Smith. Davies and others.

United States vs. Four bales of Cloths and Cassimeres, E Rhoades claimant .- The Jury in this case, which was alluded to a day or two since, gave a verdict in favor of the United States vs. Wm. Jacobs and Jacob Eilert .- The deendants are landlord and bar keeper of a seamen's boardng-house, and are presecuted on a charge of harboring deerters from a merchant vessel, the penalty for which is $10 per day for each deserter harbored, said penalty attaching to each person being cognizant of the proceeding, half of the penalty, when collected, to accrue to the informer. In this case the defendants had harbored two seamen that had deserted from the Swedish ship Fame, and action is brought against them for $40 each. Mr. Benedict, on behalf of detendants, contended that the law reterred only to seamen deserting from American vessels. The Court charged that such was the case, and the Jury found for defendants.

CIRCUIT COURT .- Before Judge Kent .- TRIAL or MUNROE EDWARDS .- This case was continued to day, and the testimony of Recorder Vaux and others given, but nothing new elicited. The trial will probably occupy the whole of to-morrow.

SUPERIOR COURT .- Truman Cook vs. R. Meacham and George W. Mann.-The defendants, who are auctioneers, sold to plaintiff, in March last, the bar fixtures ten-pin alley and other property contained in No. 88 Broad street, up stairs, taking from him two notes, amounting to $1,000, with a mortgage on the articles sold, as security. The house had an indictment hanging over it when sold, as The house had an indictment hanging over it when sold, as being noisy, &c., which was not known to plaintiff at the time, and it is declared that he went to detendants, complaining that he had not been informed of the circumstance. They offered to sell the property anew on their own account, and give up the consideration. Authority was given them by plaintiff, and a resale took place at a considerable less. The defendants still retained the notes and claimed the balance. The present is an action of trover to recover the value of property sold which had not been particularly mentioned in the mortgage, but alluded to as "and other articles as per schedule annexed." The schedule was not appended, which was fatal. Verdict for plaintiff $150. COMMON PLEAS .- James M'Cormick vs. Ives,

It appeared, however, by the testimony, that the firm was in-debted to the drawer, and the Jury found for plaintiff.

COURT OF SESSIONS .- TRIAL FOR PERJURY. The trial of Isaac Walter for Perjury was resumed. Stephen T. Mason, Esq., deposed, for Prosecution, that he, as Counsel for Allen, wrote the affidavit charged to be false, as dictated to him at the time by the prisoner, who stated to him the several pieces of real estate he possessed, with their ocalities, &c. Witness read the affidavit, after it was written, to the accused, and the latter then signed and swore

Mr. Van Hovenburgh then opened the case for the defence and called witnesses.

The brother of the accused testified to his weakness of aind and easy credulity, and his hallucination as to the pos session of real estate, the accused believing that he was worth some $50,000; that whenever the accused had any worth some $50,000; that whenever the accused and any money a man by the name of A. G. Coxe was continually after him, with others, getting his money from him; that the accused had various deeds purporting to be for real estate, but whether worth any thing or not witness could not tell. Had often thought his brother insane on the subject of property. A dwed with erasures and interlineations, dated Dec. 10, 1838, purporting to be from John M. Smith to the accused for house and lot 153 Grand st. and for the houses and lots in Mercer and Mottsts, which he deposed he owned, which deed was acknowledged before Adrew L. Amarcux, the subscribing witness A. G. Coxe, swearing to the execution of the deed by Smith, the grantor. The consideration or the deed was $50,000. Other witnesses testified to prisoner's previous good char-

A A. Hatch testified to the prisoner's having come to him at the corner of Pearl and Beckman six in June last, and wished him to trade off certain houses and lots in this city for dry goods, exhibiting deeds for the same and showing some of the property, wishing witness to examine the titles. This property was the same as the accused swore he owned. This property was the sain Mott and Mercer sts.

J. A. Henderson deposed to the accused dealing in land-J. A. Henderson deposed to the accused dealing in lands—very credulous; that he was haunted by A. G. Coxe and others almost continually, and that when prisoner was building a certain house, Coxe was after him and received most of the money the accused earned for building it.

Several other witnesses issuined to similar facts, and the Recorder charged the Jury, who tound the accused Guilty Fles or Guitty—Pelpert Michell indicated. PLEA OF GUILTY .- Robert Mitchell, indicted for gran larceny, pleaded Guilty to the charge and was remanded

TRIAL FOR MANSLAUGHTER .- Terence Keon and Franci Kelly, were tried for manslaughter in the 4th degree, in causing the death of George Beach, one of the drivers of the Knickerbocker line of stages, when on his box, on the 2d June last, by blasting rocks in 23d-street, between the 7th and 3th avenues. Alderman West deposed that having heard of the blasting of rocks in 23d-street, and the dange to human-like by the careless manner it was done-pro ceeded to the place in May and found the accused engaged n blasting without the precaution of having planks or tim per over the blasts, or putting persons at the corners of the streets to advise persons of their danger. Ordered the accused to take these precautions, which they promised-say ng they notified persons of the blasts by blowing a horn which the Alberman told them would not do. The acting District Attorney, Mr. Bacon, called Mr. Milliken, the Coroner's Deputy, to prove the finding of the Coroner's Jury as to the cause of the death of George Beach. This was ob ected to by Mr. Cooke, the Cousel of accused-and ruled out by the Court as information derived from others, and no knowledge of the fact-which was a higher species of evidence and must be derived from persons who saw the fact and knew the cause of death. Floyd Smith deposed to being in the stege, driven by deceased and of the latter suddenly falling off the seat in front the street, and the horses starting Got out as soon as he could, went to the man an oned him dead. His skull badly fractured and crushed in. and the blood flowing copiously. Did not see a stone strike deceased or hear the report of a blast. The side face of deceased was scraped by the fall. Other witnesses deposed to the bia-ting of rocks that day—the gross carelessness of those biasting, &c.—but no one traced the violence causing the death of Beach, to the accused. The witnesses (as stated by the District Attorney) who saw the transaction had let he city and were not to be found. The Jury found the locused not guilty,

The Coroner held an inquest to-day, at No. 26 Peck Slip, on the body of William Crumbie, a native of Scotland, aged from 22 to 24 years, who had recently arrived in this country. He had been unwell about a week, and on Friday afternoon walked out, returning about 6 o'clock. His mind appeared to be disordered, and be was put to bed in an attic room of the above-named house, where he boarded an attic room of the above-named house, where he boarded. In about an hour and an half afterwards he was seen to fall from the window upon the walk below, and badly fracturing his skull, instantly died. Verdict, came to his death by injuries received by falling from the window of house No. 20 Peck Sip.

SUICIDE.—The Coroner also held an inquest at the Aims

House in the Park on the body of Henry Wieder ann, a na. tive of Germany, aged 45 years, who had been lodging at the House of Lewis Newman, No. 73 Walker-street. The deceased had been a merchant, but had become reduced in circumstances, which depressed his spirits. On Mooday morning he was called to breakfast but declined to rise and during the forenoon Mr. Newman calling up in hisroon found him very ill and sent for a physician, but before the arrival of the latter the man had died. In a tumbler in the arrival of the latter the man had died. In a tumbler in the room were found vestiges of white powder, and also some in a paper under the pillow, inducing the belief that he was poisoned. Dr. Chilton took the stomach and analyzing its contents discovered arsenic therein. The jury then found that the deceased committed suicide by taking area.

ANOTHER CASE OF SUICIDE. - The Coroner also held an inquest at No. 113 Walker st. on the body of John Bagley, a native of this city, aged about 45, of rather intemperas habits. On Tuesday, 4 o'clock, the deceased, who had a room at the above place, went to the corner of Grand and Mulberry sts. and purchased It ounce of landanum, which he swallowed, and which caused his death.

To the Editor of The Tribune:

I see a statement signed "McCullium" in your paper of Monday concerning the collision of the sloop Riemi of Newport with the British brig Atlas, which I wish to correct. The writer says that the Rienzi run into the brig atter being hailed and desired to put about. Now this is utterly untrue, as I state on my own authority, and as I can prove by several witnesses. The circumstances as they occurred were these: While standing Eastward, near Classon Point, out of the line of vessels bound up the Sound, we saw a brig coming down before the wind. We knied her three times, desiring her to put her helm a-starboard; but obtained no answer until the third time, when the pilot replied that her helm was hard a-starboard, but that the brig would not steer. As I was in the wind I could not turn my course, and the brig therefore run into me, en starboard side, carrying away my boom-croteh and some of the after stancheous. The vessels then swung around together. I then requested the brig to let go his starboard braces and so clear his yard from my sail; but instead of doing his he hauled up his starboard braces which brought his yard in contact with my mainsail. I then hailed them and told them if they did not brace the yard the other way I would cut their braces. The yards were then braced the other way. I asked the name of the vessel and received no answer. The brig then swung clear and made sail immediately, without asking whether I was injured or not. I de-way. I asked the name of the vessel and received no asswer. The brig then swung clear and made sail immediately, without asking whether I was injured or not. I determined to know her name, lowered my boat and after pulling four miles found that she was the Atlas.

Who McCullum is I know not, but he has given currency to falsehoods as gross as they are impudent. He speaks of my calling him "a d—" Englishman." This is nutrue, for how could I know any thing about his being an Englishman when he refused to answer my questions? I care so thing at all for the blackguard with which he assails me his conduct certainly does no honor to the flag under which he sails, nor am I at all afraid his abuse will injure me.

It Yours, &c. R. DURFEE, Capt. of the Riemi.

Sands's Sarsaparilla.—Scropula has slain its tens of thosands. This very alarming affection appears under a great variety of forms, from the slightest deviation from health to the most tatal of local and general disease. One of the most common forms is Tubercular Pthisis Pulmonalis of Consumption of the Lungs: diseases of the hip and free joint and white swelling; also, the glands of the neck and other parts of the body. Experience has shown that Sand's Sarsaparilla is a cure for this most inveterate complain, and in numerous instances it has brought returning health and life where the vital spark had almost fied. From its preparation and peculiar combination with other vegetable substances it operates by removing in the first place unbedity action from the diseased organs, substituting healthy action in its place, and giving tone to the general energies of the system. For particulars of its curative powers, see different advertisements in the daily papers.
